Welcome to Shrewsbury International School India

It is my great pleasure to introduce you to Shrewsbury International School, India. Ours is a school committed to focusing on educating the whole person. Our greatest priority is to ensure that pupils leave us not just with the very best qualifications of which they are capable, but also with the self-awareness, skills, habits, and attitudes that will enable them to succeed at university and beyond.

The School has an extraordinary campus. We are privileged to occupy a 150-acre site, which has been carefully developed to ensure that pupils have access to world-class, state-of-the-art facilities for academic endeavour, boarding, and the provision of an unrivalled range of co- and extra-curricular activities. The breadth and quality of our facilities means that pupils have the very best of opportunities to explore where their talents, interests, and enthusiasms may lie.

To help our pupils realise their potential, the Shrewsbury approach to education is grounded in the spirit of individualism. We recognise that each of our pupils is unique. From the outset, we appreciate the importance of all our pupils feeling comfortable and confident in their own skin. We strive to ensure that the ways in which we teach, coach and mentor are adapted to meet the needs of each individual. To that end, we take great care to recruit inspirational educators to support and encourage our pupils to set and achieve ambitious academic and personal goals.

In parallel, we strive to instil a sense of social responsibility in our students, and a strong desire to make a difference; to contribute, for the betterment of the world. Considerable emphasis is placed on developing the confidence and skills needed to make the most of the opportunities, and navigate the challenges, that life will cast their way. We nurture the development of each pupil's inner moral compass. We have proudly adopted the Shrewsbury motto: Intus Si Recte Ne Labora – 'if all is right within, trouble not'. For us, this is a universal truth that provides the foundation from which we enthusiastically cultivate our identity as an Indian school providing a British curriculum.

The school's educational philosophy is informed by the best educational thinking and research available in both the UK and India. Shrewsbury School brings over four centuries of educational heritage to our approach, this is complemented by Jagran Social Welfare Society's extensive expertise and experience of the educational landscape across India. Both are organisations that have demonstrated wisdom in the pragmatism with which they have adapted to the passing of time, and the manner in which they have successfully pre-empted the ways in which the world has changed. They have done so whilst staying true to their core values, and keeping their focus on educating pupils for the world as it will be. No words, photographs, or videos can do justice to our campus or our people. Please do read on but note, the only way to get a real sense of our School is to come for a visit. You are very welcome to do so, and I look forward to welcoming you to Shrewsbury School in India.

Shrewsbury School, Campus

Founded by Royal Charter in 1552 under King Edward VI, Shrewsbury School is one of the 'great' nine schools in England identified by the Clarendon Commission of 1861. Over the last 472 years it has grown in size and reputation and is now ranked amongst the leading co-educational boarding schools in the world, educating pupils aged 13-18 years.

On a breath-taking 110-acre site on the banks of the River Sever, pupils participate in a wide range of sporting, music and co-curricular activities, as well as being encouraged to engage in adventure and charitable endeavour. The academic provision at Shrewsbury School is tailored to the needs and enthusiasms of the individual and engages pupils in a learning process that combines inspirational teaching with a commitment to encouraging intellectual curiosity. Shrewsbury School aims to ensure that all its pupils leave as fully rounded, well-educated, and responsible adults, committed to contributing to their communities.

With Charles Darwin and Sir Philip Sidney among the numerous illustrious former people and icons for generations of Salopians, the school has a rich tradition which continues to guide the pupils studying at the school.
