Shrewsbury India Leadership Programme

The Shrewsbury India Leadership Programme is designed to nurture the next generation of confident, compassionate, and capable leaders. Rooted in the ethos of Shrewsbury International School India and aligned with the Floreat model of Whole Person Education, the programme offers pupils the opportunity to live the life of a Salopian-engaged, curious, and purposeful.

Through experiential learning, mentorship, adventure, and meaningful engagement across academic, co-curricular, boarding, and expedition life, pupils develop the character and skills required to lead with integrity and resilience.

Programme Structure

Week 1: Leadership Residency – Bhopal

Location: Shrewsbury International School India

During the first week, pupils live in the boarding houses and fully immerse themselves in the vibrant life of the school. They participate in structured morning workshops and a rich afternoon co-curricular programme.

Core Leadership Modules

- Thought & Critical Thinking
- Teamwork & Collaboration
- Philosophy & Ethical Leadership
- Communication and Oracy
- Decision-Making Under Pressure

Morning workshops are academically rigorous and discussion-based, designed to stretch and challenge every participant.

Weekly Structure (Week 1)

Sunday: Arrival & Orientation
Monday: Leadership Workshop
Tuesday: Teamwork
Wednesday: Communication & Oracy
Thursday: Philosophy
Friday: Expedition Preparation & Project Planning
Saturday: Reflection & Departure Briefing

Afternoons include Sports and Performing Arts, with opportunities to experience:

- Rowing
- Fencing
- Shooting
- Equestrianism

Pupils train physically and mentally in preparation for the expedition week ahead.

Week 2: Himalayan Expedition – Manali

Location: Manali

In the second week, pupils travel to the Himalayas for a guided leadership expedition and trek in the Manali region.

This immersive outdoor experience challenges pupils to apply the leadership principles learned in Week 1 in real-world conditions.

Expedition Focus

- Team leadership rotations
- Route planning and shared responsibility
- Resilience and adaptability
- Environmental awareness and stewardship
- Reflection in challenging conditions

Living and trekking together in the mountains builds independence, perseverance, and deep team cohesion. Pupils experience the powerful leadership lessons that only nature can provide.

The expedition culminates in:

- A collaborative group leadership project
- A final presentation delivered upon return
- A personal leadership reflection portfolio

Programme Leadership

The programme is led by Oliver Russell, Deputy Headmaster and Programme Director at Shrewsbury International School India.

A double graduate of University of Cambridge (MA, MPhil) and Fellow of the Royal Geographical Society (FRGS), Oliver has taught internationally on Personal Development programmes and has contributed to programmes at the Cambridge Judge Business School for students aged 14–19.

He is supported by Shrewsbury India's dedicated academic, pastoral, and expedition staff.
